About Gloucestershire, England

Gloucester combines a rich historic past with a modern City and is home to the famous Gloucester Cathedral and Victorian Docks. The heart of Gloucester is home to excellent shopping centres, museums, wonderful restaurants and pubs. Nearby lies the beautiful Gloucester Cathedral, with its 'Great East Window' and 'The Cloisters' - the most complete example in England, and also famously featured in the Harry Potter films. Bristol City and Birmingham are both just an hour from Gloucester city.

About Gloucestershire Hospitals

The Gloucestershire Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust serve a population of more than 612,000 people and employ more than 8,000 staff. They are one of the UK's first NHS Foundation Trusts and run both Cheltenham General and Gloucestershire Royal Hospitals. Their hospitals are district general hospitals with a great tradition of providing high quality hospital services.
